

Nickeled & Dimed

Center for New Economics Studies (CNES)

July 2018- August 2018 Newsletter

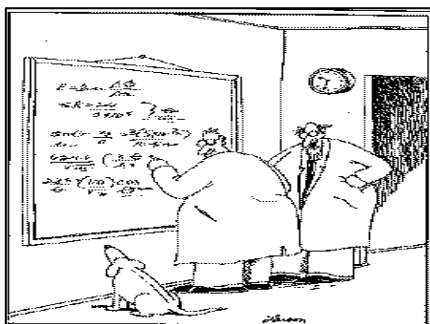

Nickeled and Dimed Forum is a space for young scholars to put out their work in the form of well-researched articles on issues relating to politics, law, international relations, foreign policy, economics, finance, public policy and a lot more. The forum provides a wide range of perspectives which are often overlooked by the mainstream media.

Find Us At

Submissions can be sent to cnes.jgu@gmail.com For guidelines, refer here for the writer's template.

QUANTUM DECISION THEORY SERIES

Quantum Decision Theory Series: #5 Techniques from Quantum Field Theory

August 11th, 2018

This article is the next one in the Quantum Decision Theory Series. In the following article, Professor Sudip Patra describes the two stages of development in the basic quantum theory. He also discusses about the different techniques from Quantum Field Theory. Read on..

PUBLIC POLICY SERIES

The Public Policy Series includes a diverse range of perspectives authored by students on the (re)conceptualization of public policy in its application and as a cross-fertilization of thought from other domains of social disciplines.

Public Policy Series – III

July 22nd, 2018

In the following article, the author, Priyam Agarwalla tries to make a point as to how public policy making should not be merely seen as a technocratic exercise in form of executive implementation as per (pre)defined rules of the game but must evolve as an interdisciplinary body of knowledge. Read on...

RESEARCH ARTICLES

The Cost of LGBT Exclusion to the Economy of India

August 15th, 2018

The essence of this article written by Viswas Viswanath is to look at the exclusion of the LGBT community through an economic lens rather than a socio-cultural one. It focuses on the influence behavioural economics has on this exclusion as well as looks at the crisis which could arise out of the "identity bias" attribute of behavioural economics. Read on to find out more!

Embracing the Positive Obligation of Privacy

August 8th, 2018

Mr.Ashit Kumar Srivastava talks about the role of the Union Government as a 'Data Fiduciary' after the Puttuswamy judgment which cements the Right to Privacy as a Fundamental Right under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. Even though it is a negative right demanding non-interference of the State, with the Adhaarinitiative, the Author argues, there is a positive obligation on the State to protect the data collected by means of UIDAI remains safe. Read on...

An Inquiry into the Morals of Marriage

August 5th, 2018

Bertrand Russell's, "Marriage and Morals" was published 9 decades ago and yet the foundations of modern marriage are deeply embedded in the past which have invoked a certain moral bias. This article by Guneet Singh Sidhu juxtaposes Lord Russell's arguments against contemporary marriage scenarios to examine the "modern marriage". Read on...

Herding and the Dotcom Bubble

August 1st, 2018

In this article, SanjanaMedipally explores the herd mentality of the stock market by taking a close look at the dot-com bubble. The article looks into this bubble and the impact it had, especially due to the creation of the internet and its impact on the growth in the revenue of companies. Read on to find out more about this phenomenon and its consequences!

Did 'Herd Behaviour' give East Asian Economies a ride during the Financial Crisis?

July 29th, 2018

This article analyses the impact of 'herd behavior', which is considered to be the quickest decision-making device, on the East Asian financial crisis. Herd behavior, due to constant social influence and social learning from interconnected clusters, is the end process of social learning. The article explains how this herd mentality can lead to a spread of crisis across interconnected economies. Read on...

A Feminist Perspective to Demonetization in India - Effects of the Demonetization Crisis of 2016 on Women and Transgender Communities

July 25th, 2018

In this article, SrivatsanManivannan uses George Akerlof and Rachel Kranton's notion of identity and its role in affecting economic outcomes in the context of gender identity to analyze the effects of demonetization on women and transgender persons. Read on to find out more.

THE TEAM

Ayushi Saraogi
Assistant Editor
IIIrd year, B.A.LL.B
Jindal Global Law School

Danish MC
Assistant Editor
IIIrd year, B.A. Economics
Jindal School of Government and Public Policy

Kaainat Pundir
Associate Editor
IIIrd year, B.A.LL.B
Jindal Global Law School

Priyam Agarwalla
Associate Editor
IInd year, M.A. Public Policy
Jindal School of Government and Public Policy

Shubhalakshmi Bhattacharya
Assistant Editor
IIIrd year, B.A.LL.B
Jindal Global Law School

Lakshita Singh
Assistant Editor
IIIrd year, B.A.LL.B
Jindal Global Law School