

Nickeled & Dimed

THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE CENTRE FOR NEW ECONOMICS STUDIES (CNES)

2021

MONTHLY
PRINT

 CNES
Centre for New Economics Studies

NOVEMBER 2021

A CHOPPY ROAD AHEAD

The November edition of the Print included articles analysing urban mobility in India, the geo-politics of the Indo-Pacific, COP26, and the relationship between environmentalism and eco-casteism. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Sudarshan RSA, Sabahat Ali Wan, Mukundan Alexander, Riyosha Sharma, Asish Singh, and Tanvee Shehrawat

Access the print here

OCTOBER 2021

UNWRAPPING "A PLASTIC OCEAN"

The October edition of the Print included articles analysing the disposal practices for plastic, Kashmiri feminism, middle class environmentalism and the 4 day work week. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Garima Agarwal, Sushameendra Balaji, Sabahat Ali Wan, Shreya Ramchandran, Harsheen Sahni, and Ashika Thomas.

Access the print here

SEPTEMBER 2021

WHY THE RISE OF TALIBAN IN AFGHANISTAN IS A DOUBLE-EDGED SWORD FOR PAKISTAN

The September edition of the Print included articles analysing the relationship between Afghanistan and Pakistan, the POSCO act, and the National Monetisation Pipeline. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Sushameendra Balaji, Nandini Agarwal, Shreya Ramchandran, and Hemang Sharma Shrama.

Access the print here

AUGUST 2021

THE GLOBAL MINIMUM CORPORATE TAX & INDIA

The August edition of the Print included articles analysing global minimum corporate tax, forced evictions in Delhi, and the G20 Coal phase out plan. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Garima Agarwal, Sushmita Solanki, Pratul Chaturvedi, Arjun Varma and Ashoka Thomas.

Access the print here

JULY 2021

TAMIL NADU ELECTIONS: THE PERIOD BETWEEN THE 1980S AND EARLY 2000S

The July edition of the Print included articles analysing Bhutan and India's relationship, the Love Jihad law, the US Abortion law, and China's new three child policy. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Dikshi Arora, Om Agarwal, Hemang Sharma Sharma, Karishni Puri, Tejaswini Vondivillu, Siddharth G and Tanya Rana.

Access the print here

JUNE 2021

THE ISRAEL PALESTINE CONUNDRUM: DOMESTIC DENOUEMENT

The June edition of the Print included articles analysing social heirachies in India, Shamima Begum, and the economic diversification of the Middle East. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Deepanshu Singal, Tejaswini Vondivillu, Yasashvi Paarakh, Atisha Mahajan and Sagara Ann Johnny.

Access the print here

MAY 2021

A PARALLEL 'PUBLIC-PRIVATE' APPROACH TO THE CORONAVIRUS VACCINE

The May Print included articles analysing Indian vaccine policy, the people's representation act, the US withdrawal from Afganistan, and the voluntary recruitment of women by terrorist organisations. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Sanchali Bhowmik, Amisha Singh, Wynnona Fernandes Sriramya Ghanta.

Access the print here

APRIL 2021

PUTTING A PRICE ON NATURE, WITH A TWIST

The April print included articles analysing the quantification and monetisation of natural resources, loans taken by China, the informal strategic dialogue 'Quad' and gender stereotypes in KPOP. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Krishanu Kashyap, Atisha Mahajan, Pratul Chaturvedi, Ananya Gupta, Sagara Ann Johnny, Dikshi Arora, Noor Sharma & Ashika Thomas

Access the print here

MARCH 2021

COMMODIFIED QUEER SPACES AND WHAT THEY MEAN

The print for March 2021 included articles analysing the relationship between military bases and neocolonialism, latent gender normativity, and the inequality caused by the pandemic. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Wynonna fernandes, Aliva Smruti , Arundhati Rajan, Riyosha sharma, Shikar and Ananya Vhavle

Access the print here

FEBRUARY 2021

THE GAMESTOP FRENZY—EXPLAINED

The most popular article for February 2021 focused on the surging stock price of the company "Gamestop". The print also included articles analysing the 2021 Budget, nuanced arguments surrounding nuclear deterrence and environmental racism. This edition featured the following columnists from the Centre - Atisha Mahajan, Om agarwal, Sagara Ann Johny, Aditya Puri, Shubam Saxena, Vanshika mittal, and Mohd. Rameez Raza.

Access the print here

FOLLOW US ON

